

Rector - Keston Parish Church (London Borough of Bromley)

"To welcome and embrace all who come into this place of peace to be blessed, healed and equipped by God"

We are looking to appoint a Rector (half-time: 3 days plus Sundays) to lead this small, semi-rural community within Bromley. The parish mainly consists of housing, with the quiet 'village' feel (but easy access to Central London) attracting a mix of younger families and retirees.

The parish is seeking a priest who:

- can rise to the challenge of making the teachings of Jesus relevant to today's world;
- is an energetic and outgoing leader, able to grow the congregation while building on links with the community, including the Messy Church initiative;
- has a willingness to engage fully with the Church primary school.

The Parish Profile can be downloaded from the 'Vacancies' section of the Diocesan website (www.rochester.anglican.org)

For an application form, please email Fiona Porter, PA to the Archdeacon of Bromley & Bexley on: archdeacon.bromley@rochester.anglican.org

Closing date for applications: Noon on Friday, 29th September 2017
[Interviews to be held on Thursday, 2nd November]
