

Director of Education
Salary up to £82,000 dependant on experience

'I have come in order that you might know life in all its fullness.' Are you being called to lead the Rochester Diocese Education Team? Can you guide us as we seek to live out Christ's intention for us through the provision of a deeply Christian education to the children and young people of the Diocese of Rochester?

We are currently seeking to appoint a new Director of Education to lead the development and implementation of an effective strategy for the Education team and the 89 church schools within our diocese.

We are looking for candidates who are passionate about promoting excellence and the highest possible quality of education for all pupils, demonstrating and enhancing Christian distinctiveness throughout our schools. If you are seeking a fresh challenge, have a clear and deep sense of vocation and want to enrich the lives of children and young people, we would love to hear from you.

Candidates must have had previous experience within a senior strategic role, preferably within education, inspiring and nurturing leaders in schools. You must have collaborated with a range of stakeholders and must possess sound business acumen.

You will need to be educated to degree level or equivalent, with extensive understanding of the structure of the Church of England and Church of England Schools. A practising Christian who is a communicant member of the Church of England with commitment to the church's mission is also essential.
